

To: Agriculture Legislative Assistant
From: American Farmland Trust
United Fresh Produce Association
Re: June 11 Policy Briefing
Date: June 5, 2007

The 2007 Farm Bill Provides a unique opportunity to help families put healthy food on their tables, help feed America's hungry, preserve our land and support America's farmers. These elements run through a number of the proposals as Congress considers the Farm Bill.

To examine and explain these critical elements American Farmland Trust and the United Fresh Produce Association are sponsoring a Congressional Staff Briefing on Monday, June 11 from 10:00a.m. – 11:30a.m. in 2362-B Rayburn, Energy and Water Appropriations. Coffee, juice and snacks will be provided.

Confirmed Speakers Include:

- Lorelei DiSogra, Vice President of Nutrition and Health, United Fresh Produce Association
- Ralph Grossi, President, American Farmland Trust
- Allen Hance, Senior Policy Analyst, Northeast-Midwest Institute
- Stacy Dean, Director, Food Stamp and Immigrant Policy, Center for Budget Policy and Priorities
- Charles M. Kuperus, New Jersey Secretary of Agriculture

We hope you or your staff can join us for this important briefing.

For more information on the briefing or to RSVP email Peter Loge at ploge@milopublicaffairs.com.